(Corner of Main and Mulberry Streets),
Lexington, Kentucky.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he has leased this old and well known Hotel, in the city of Lexington, and that he has taken charge of the same.
The House has recently undergone a thorough renovation; the rooms are newly and neatly furnished, and still further improvements will be made to render it in all respects worthy of public patronage, and an agreeable home to those who may avail themselves of its privileges.
Intending to devote his own time and attention to the business, and to surround himself with competent assistants; together with faithful, polite and attentive servants, he gives the assurance to the public that no efforts on his part shall be wanting to make the old Phoenix in all respects worthy of its reputation in its palmy days.
Professions, however, are too easily and too frequently made to be of much value unless accompanied by corresponding acts, and he, therefore, only asks that the public may test the sincerity of his pledges by giving him a call. They will all find him ready to minister to their comforts in the best manner in his power.

LIFE PILLS AND PHENIX BITTERS.
THESE MEDICINES have now been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the Globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.
The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES are well known to be infallible.
Dyspepsia, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile instead of the stale and acid kind; Flatulency, loss of appetite, Heart-Burn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill-Temper, Anxiety, Langour, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.
Constipation, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.
Fevers of all kinds, by restoring the blood to regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstructions in others.
The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and Gout in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.
Dropsies of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of Gravel.
Also Worms, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.
Scurvy, Ulcers, and Inverted Sores, by the perfect purity which these Life Medicines give to the blood, and all the humors.
Scorbutic Eruptions, and Bad Complexions, by their alkaline effect, and the state of health which they induce, these medicines will cure all eruptions, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, scallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.
The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of Salt Rheum, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. Common Cold and Influenza will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.
Piles.—The original proprietor of these Medicines was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing, by the use of the Life Medicines alone.
FEVER AND AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will afford a speedy, and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease; a cure by these Medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied, and be cured.
Bilious Fevers and Liver Complaints.—General Debility, Loss of Appetite, and Diseases of the Liver and Gallbladder have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description—King's Evil, and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painter's Colic, are speedily cured.
Mercurial Diseases.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of mercury, will find these Medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparations of Sarsaparilla.
Prepared and sold by W. B. MORFAT, 335 Broadway, New York.
For sale by all Druggists. oct15 '60—wly.

THE COMMONWEALTH. FRANKFORT.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1863.

The funeral services of Capt. Daniel Garrard did not take place on yesterday, on account of the inclemency of the weather. Notice will hereafter be given of the time fixed upon for the funeral rites.

We should expect an Administration not entirely demented to read something of the signs of the times. The present one at Washington sees its friends condemned by the people in scores; and State Legislatures protesting against its programme for the war. In its present course its power of dealing with the rebellion is weakened by its own acts.

What remains of it represents but a miserable faction able only to do evil.

It has, command of armies, but is an administration so blind that it can suppose that the power to command on paper is sufficient; that a mighty public opinion at home will rule armies. The interest of officers and soldiers is at home. Their essential interest is there, and proclamations and orders, which the heart of man revolts at, will be evaded by armies.

This Administration has united its enemies and divided its friends, and will die of imbecility. No Administration ever had a higher mission; no party ever had an opportunity to demonstrate its power and statesmanship. No Administration and no party ever so signally failed. They have given to party what belonged to their country, and demonstrated to the world their incapacity to act up to the great occasion. The intelligence of the masses has seen the failure, the lamentable incapacity, and has given their verdict against it.

The cherished object of the masses is to restore the Union. They see, too, that the great object in the way is the Administration and its party, and in restoring the Union it is indispensable to remove this obstacle, and it shall be removed.

This country presents the singular spectacle of being ruled by two factions, one in power at Washington and the other in power at Richmond; one a theoretical despotism and partially practical; the other a practical despotism and partially theoretical.

The masses of the people are the victims of the powers they have allowed to grow up. It is the interest of these powers to prosecute the irrepressible conflict; it is the interest of the masses to stop it, and restore the Union of their fathers. "No compromise!" shouts one of these factions. "No compromise!" echoes the other; and yet the common sense of mankind knows that the Union was made by concessions and compromises, and must be restored by the same means. Thanks to a Democratic North. They have asserted their right to discuss the whole matter; and the day is coming when the South will do it, notwithstanding the grinding despotism, aided by the ill conduct of the party in power at Washington—these two factions of the irrepressible conflict; they will only prolong for a time these troubles.

The masses North and South are friends. They have no reason to be otherwise; and when they do understand each other, they will take care, in all coming time, that these irrepressible demagogues shall not again disturb the public peace, to gratify their cursed ambition.

The heaviest snow storm of the last fifteen years visited our city on Wednesday night and yesterday. The snow fell to the depth of eighteen inches, and was still snowing when our paper went to press. The river was rising very rapidly, and fears were entertained by some of our citizens that the trestle work bridge would be washed away. Their fears, thus far, have proved groundless. No trains came through from either Louisville or Lexington, consequently we have no telegraphic news in our paper of to-day.

M. de Groof, of Bruges, asserts that, after 11 years' study, he has invented the means of flying in the air in any direction, and only needs money to demonstrate it beyond question. The machine is small, he says, and will enable a man to move in the air "with the swiftness of the swallow and the vigor of the eagle."

INFLUX OF CONTRABANDS IN NORTH CAROLINA.—A New England officer, writing from Plymouth, N. C., speaks as follows of the influx of contrabands, and of the scarcity of salt among the rebels:

There are or have been over six hundred contrabands whom we have had to feed. I shipped to Newbern yesterday and the day before, about four hundred of them, which has relieved us very much. They come into our lines every day, more or less, and we have to feed them.

Hundreds of citizens come in town to take the oath of allegiance and get salt. Many of them have been known to take the oath and get salt and go sell it to the rebel soldiers. I have made it a point now to give orders for salt only to such as can bring testimony that they are good Union men. About one in ten is able to get it. I have had offers of ten, twenty, and fifty dollars for a bushel, and the people are suffering very much for want of it.

The following Kentuckians have been released from Camp Chase, Ohio: J. B. Hamlin, G. M. Cleveland, F. R. Worsham, M. V. Worsham, all of Fayette county, and Henry Metcalfe, of Lexington.

It seems that Simon Cameron wishes to get into office again. Turkey buzzards soar as high as they can; that they may see where the carrion is.

Illustration of the Piety of Gen. Bragg.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF TENNESSEE,
MURFREESBORO, Dec. 12, 1862.
GENERAL ORDERS NO. 12

Recognizing our dependence on the Providence of Almighty God, and mindful of our obligations for His mercies and grace to us individually and as a people, it is our bounden duty on all suitable occasions to bow with reverence before His throne; to acknowledge our submission to His moral government, "to confess our sins unto Him," to render thanks for the great benefits we have received at His hands, to set forth His most worthy praise, to hear His most holy word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary as well for the body as the soul.

To encourage and cultivate the affections appropriate to the due performance of these reasonable duties. He hath set apart one day in seven, and although it is not at all times practicable to dispense with military duty on the Sabbath, there is an extent to which these may be curtailed. Commanding officers of all grades are, therefore, earnestly exhorted to issue their orders so as to give to all officers and soldiers an opportunity to attend Divine service that day.

Experience supports the teachings of the Divine law, that one day in seven is regarded as a day of rest for man and beast. Policy, therefore, as well as religious duty, calls upon us to reverence this Divine appointment.

All military duty not required for discipline and defense, or the necessary collection and preservation of supplies, will be dispensed with on the Sabbath, while the enemy is stationary, and every facility and convenience practicable, will be afforded chaplains for the celebration of Divine service, and officers and men will be encouraged to attend.

[Signed.] BRAXTON BRAGG,
[Official.] General Comd.

A new "loot" is reported from India. Some inquisitive Englishman, poking about in the purlieus of Lucknow, has just discovered in the possession of a common Kachar in that city, a quantity of jewels valued at thirteen lacs of rupees, about $850,000. Three of the diamonds alone are said to be worth ten lacs. The property is supposed to have been taken out of the Kriser Bagh during the mutiny. It is now in the safe keeping of the British officers, a fact which it is, perhaps, unnecessary to add.

OBITUARY.

Again it becomes our painful duty to announce the death of a very dear friend and old schoolmate, Capt. Daniel Garrard, of the 22d Regiment Kentucky Volunteers, U. S. A., who was killed in the late battle of Vicksburg, on the 29th of December, 1862, while gallantly leading on his men, under a most terrific fire of the enemy, by a shot in the temple, standing, as he was, near his colors. He was borne off the field immediately.

Captain Garrard was born in the month of January, 1841, his parents residing at that time in Boyle county, where he passed the early part of his youth. In the fall of 1857 his parents removed to Frankfort. He was educated in the well known school of Mr. Sayre, where he finished his studies—a school-fellow beloved by all his classmates and fellow students for his silent, unpretending manners; great kindness and generosity, besides a marked frankness of disposition. Never seeking the companionship of others, yet affording attractions which insensibly, but nevertheless irresistibly, drew others to him. He was an apt and careful student—mastering whatever was difficult to others with great ease and quickness—possessing a fine preception, sharpened by the application to arduous study; and, moreover, a favorite with his teacher at all times. But what most distinguished him was his high moral worth, having a character so unsullied, and conducting himself with so much propriety, that he was noted of all others. Bad habits were foreign to his nature. For him the intoxicating glass, the card table, and the midnight revel, afforded not sufficient inducements to barter away a fair reputation for the sake of momentary pleasures. Chaste in thought, language, and action, he was the darling idol of his family to whom his very presence was a fountain of happiness.

During the fall of 1861, in the latter part of October, he recruited a company, which he attached to the regiment of Col. D. W. Lindsey; and during the fall and winter was engaged among the wilds of Big Sandy river, Eastern Kentucky, in many trying expeditions and several sharp skirmishes. When General Morgan took possession of the Cumberland Gap—a modern Gibraltar—where remaining intrenched until the month of September, 1862, his troops were compelled to cut their way through to the Ohio, having encountered many hardships, and passed through unparalleled dangers; when they were finally ordered to Vicksburg, where, in a most desperate struggle, Capt. Garrard fell, beloved by his men as he was in his own quiet home; in the very budding of life and buoyant health, a victim. Oh, God! how hard a fate.

He had almost attained the age of 22 years. Truly had he
"The grateful spirit that improves
And brightens every gift by fortune given,
That wanders where it will, with those it loves
Makes every place a home, and home a heaven."
With his bereaved, almost heart-broken parents and sisters, whose pride and pet has been so cruelly torn away from them in such an unseasonable hour, does a large community deeply sympathize; and many of his dearest friends and relations will re-echo the sounds of grief from souls burdened with sorrow.

And while your eyes are yet dimmed with tears, remember your boy has been snatched away from you but to be transported to a region of bliss where death and war is unknown, but where peace reigns forever supreme.

A very diminutive specimen of a man lately solicited the hand of a fine buxom girl.
"Oh, no," said the fair but insulting lady, "I can't think of it for a moment. The fact is, John, you are a little too big for a cradle and a little too small to go to church with."

SCOTT & DINKELSPIEL, AGENTS.

FRANKFORT, KY.

In connection with their law business, Scott & Dinkelspiel, of Frankfort, Kentucky, will give prompt attention to the prosecution and recovery of all military claims, either against the State of Kentucky or the United States. They are conveniently situated for giving attention to the claims of all persons who entered the army from Kentucky, as the military records showing when such persons entered the service, and other facts, necessary to a recovery of their claims, are kept at Frankfort.

They will also prosecute claims for damage done to the property and slaves of loyal persons by the army; also for property seized or taken by the army; also for pensions and bounty money due to deceased widows or heirs of soldiers, as well as all other claims against the State or Government arising out of, or connected with, the present civil war. If necessary we will see that military claims entrusted to us are properly attended to before the Court of Claims at Washington City.

THE GREAT FIRE AT TROY, N. Y.

The Phoenix of Hartford.

[Extracts from letters from S. L. Loomis, Esq., President of the Phoenix Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., to R. H. & H. M. Magill, General Agents, relative to the late serious conflagration at Troy.]

PHOENIX INSURANCE COMPANY,

Hartford, Conn., May 12, 1862.

"A big fire at Troy—we are in how much we don't know. May be $200,000; but whatever it is, it will be paid as fast as adjusted, and no crying. Secretary Kellogg went up there this morning. Mr. Wallace (Adjuster) will meet him there to-morrow. They will make short work of it. The fire swept off about fifty acres of buildings—a sad calamity to Troy, but one no human foresight could have prevented. It is the first emergency we ever had, and such an one as gives more character to a Company than a hundred $5,000 fires."

HARTFORD, May 13, 1862.

"Our losses may reach $150,000 or $200,000, but whatever they are, they will all be paid before Saturday night if they can be adjusted. It is such fires that try the backbone of Companies, and if they can stand up under the heavy load, it will give them great credit."
